

Introduction

All trust locations are formal and professional and our staff dress code should reflect this. It is important that all staff, whether based in a specific school or within the central team project a professional image at all times. Our dress code reflects the high expectations of the schools in terms of teaching and learning, behaviour and student uniform. It is recognised that staff within each school perform a variety of different roles and our dress code takes this into account.

Rationale

The respect a member of staff deserves must be reflected in their appearance and professionalism. All staff must dress in a manner which reflects this professionalism. All staff are models for the students in our schools, therefore they have a responsibility to model appropriate dress and appearance. It is therefore important to dress appropriately when acting in a professional capacity and with due regard to any conclusions students, parents or visitors may draw from your appearance

General Principles

- Staff must abide by the dress code and dress appropriately for their particular role.
- The CEO or Headteacher has the final say on whether clothing and appearance is appropriate.
- If a staff member's clothing or appearance is not deemed appropriate, the line manager will speak to the staff member concerned to discuss any concerns.
